

Win a Trip for Your Class to a Local, State, or National Park

Schools, families, cities, towns, and parks are gearing up for this year's Kids to Parks Day (KTP), a nation-wide day of outdoor play organized by National Park Trust (NPT) on Saturday, May 21, 2016.

NPT will provide 100 schools with grants up to $1,000 through our annual Kids to Parks Day National School Contest. Your students can win a grant for an outdoor park experience of their own design! Visit us at kidstoparks.org to begin the application process today.

- Students research and write their own contest entry.
- Contest entries must incorporate educational, stewardship, and healthy lifestyle activities.
- Open to all under-served Pre-K through 12th-grade classes across the country and in the U.S. Territories.
- Every 4th grade class that applies supports President Obama's Every Kid in a Park Initiative.

Winners receive a grant for one park experience including bus transportation, park and outdoor recreation fees, and supplies for a stewardship project.

The Kids to Parks Day National School Contest opens January 4 and closes March 4. Winners will be announced March 25. Field trips can be taken any time during the month of May 2016. Help your students download and complete their contest entry today!
